

THE JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT, FEDERATION OF MALAYA.

REGISTRAR'S CIRCULAR NO. 2 OF 1955.

RULE OF ETIQUETTE

All Presidents and Magistrates are reminded that whilst a case is pending in a Subordinate Court no communication should take place between the President or Magistrate and either the Prosecutor or the Counsel for the Defence without the other being present.

2. If, in connection with a date or time fixed for hearing or mention of a case, communication by telephone cannot be avoided the person taking the initiative is responsible for ensuring that all persons concerned are properly consulted.

3. The same principles apply in civil cases.
